

Solomon brings 'Hope' to kids

For children who live at the Detroit Rescue Mission Ministries, a picture is worth just one word: Hope.

Award-winning Birmingham photojournalist and author Linda Solomon will bring her nationally acclaimed program "Pictures of Hope" to Detroit at the Detroit Rescue Mission Ministries, Genesis House II, 2015 Webb, at 3 p.m. on Sept. 30.

Solomon will provide a photography lesson and empower these local children, ages 7-12, to capture photos of hope. Following this photo exercise, Solomon and Susan Ianni, general manager of Gordon Chevrolet, will surprise the children with cameras.

"Through photography, children share their heartfelt feelings," said Solomon. "Their hopes and dreams captured in quiet moments tell a story that few adults can imagine. When you show children that you care about what they wish for in life, perhaps a child who never felt he or she had worth, now will. I am very honored to work with children in this 10 city program, and know the children's heartfelt photographs will make an important difference in their lives."

The hopes and dreams of children in Detroit will be transformed into holiday greeting cards which will be sold through the Detroit Rescue Mission Ministries. And 100 percent of the proceeds from the sale of the "Pictures of Hope" greeting cards will benefit the many families and children who receive services at the Detroit Rescue Mission Ministries due to the generosity of Gordon Chevrolet. During the holiday season from Thanksgiving through Christmas every customer who purchases a new Chevrolet from Gordon Chevrolet will be given the "Pictures of Hope" greeting cards as a gift. A matching donation will be given to the shelter from Gordon Chevrolet.

"The importance of "Pictures of Hope" for our Children ... Hope," said Chad Audi, president and CEO of Detroit Rescue Mission Ministries. "It springs from the roots of trust and a confident expectation. This is the power that 'Pictures of Hope' holds for the children who have been offered a life-changing event in their precious lives.
